

League Governance

Executive Positions

Meetings

Charitable Contributions

Executive Positions

All positions can be split or have a committee below them, but only one vote per spot. The executive votes must account for an odd number.

President

- Is a voted position.
- Is the voice for public relations (media, advertisements, donations) for the league.
- Must know what all executive members are doing with their own job tasks.
- Must know how much money is in the league account at all times.
- General business of the league.
- Create and/or review schedule created by appointed member.
- Be familiar with the rules, and interpret them when needed.
- Hand out team money at the end of the season.
- Is a voting member of the executive.

Vice-President

- Is a voted position.
- Will assume all duties of the president when absent.
- Must know what president is doing with the league.
- Be familiar with the rules and interpret them when needed.
- Is a voting member of the executive.

Treasurer

- Is appointed by the executive.
- Collect money/issue receipts if required.
- Execute donations/collect receipts.
- Keep executive aware of financial details.
- Is a voting member of the executive.

Statistician

- Is appointed by the executive.
- Ensures schedule is put up on the website for both regular season and playoffs.
- Keep track of team scores and ensure they are uploaded onto the website as soon as possible.
- Update website with information pertaining to league, such as tournaments, important information, donations or inclement weather notice.

- Is not a voting member.

Assistant Treasurer / Executive Member

- Is appointed by the executive.
- Replace the treasurer as required.
- Is a voting member of the executive.

Secretary

- Is a voted position.
- Will attend all meetings and compile notes of the meeting.
- Be familiar with the code of conduct and scribe warnings to be disseminated by the President.
- Is a voting member of the executive.

Meetings

Executive

Executive meetings can be called up anytime by anyone on the executive to discuss any matters that may come up, or items that need to be discussed which need the whole executive to be present.

General

The general meeting will take place between the end of the season and the start of the new season.

1. To attend the general meeting, one must be a registered player.
2. General meeting is where all registered players can voice their concerns, vote in a new executive committee, and vote on any new changes to rules in constitution or play rules.
3. All votes must be in majority rule (51% of players in attendance).

Charitable Contributions

4. Up to 10% of collected league money will be donated to local charities, details of where be found on the website.
5. 50% of 50/50 draws will be donated towards the local charities; the other half goes to the winner.
6. In lieu of flowers, a cash gift equal in value can be made to a league member, in case of illness or death in immediate family.